

Application Bulletin

Bulletin 659

Date: September 2006

Seat Track Bearing Assemblies

Products: Polypropylene retainer
Carbon steel rollers

Application: Bearing retainer containing several roller bearings provides for smooth and quiet sliding action of the seat mechanism. The indented ends ensures the rollers remain in the retainer under all circumstances.

Cost Benefit: Unique cold-heading process forms roller without the need for secondary machining. Assembly is inserted whole into the chassis eliminating the need for spacers and repetitive handling.